

Džemal Cakić, rođen je u Dubrovniku 1970. godine. Glazbenu naobrazbu započeo je u šestoj godini. Završio je glazbenu školu Luka Sorkočević u Dubrovniku u klasi profesora N. Obradovića te diplomirao na Glazbenoj akademiji u Skopju (pri Fakultetu za muzičku umjetnost "Ćiril i Metod" u Skopju, Makedonija). Od 1996. godine stalni je član Dubrovačkog simfonijskog orkestra na radnom mjestu I. trubača, ujedno i član "Four Seasons", brass kvinteta te jazz glazbenik. Sudjeluje na mnogim jazz festivalima. Od 2002. god. honorarni je nastavnik pri glazbenoj školi Luka Sorkočević. Slobodno vrijeme posvećuje proučavanju različitih glazbenih stilova, te pomaganju mladima u glazbenoj naobrazbi. Proučava odnos glazbenik – instrument – publika - produkcija. Kao srednjoškolac, a posebno kao student tijekom školovanja na Akademiji, sudjelovao je na mnogim natjecanjima, gdje je osvajao brojne nagrade. Završio je poslijediplomski studij u klasi profesora mr. Vasa Ristova, pri Fakultetu za muzičku umjetnost "Ćiril i Metod" u Skopju.

Džemal Cakić was born in Dubrovnik 1970. He started his musical education at the age of six, completed "Luka Sorkočević Music High School" in Dubrovnik in class of Prof. N. Obradović and graduated from Music Academy in Skopje (under "Cyril and Methodius" Faculty of Music Arts in Skopje, Macedonia). Since 1996 he is a member of Dubrovnik Symphony Orchestra at the position of a trumpet principal. He is also a member of brass quintet "Four Seasons" and jazz player. He participates at numerous jazz festivals. Since 2002, he is part-time teacher at "Luka Sorkočević Music High School". He dedicates his free time helping young people at their musical education, studying different music styles and relationship between musician – instrument – audiences – production. As a student at Academy, he participated many competitions and won numerous awards. He completed his postgraduate studies in the class of professor mr. Vaso Ristov, at the Faculty of Music Arts "Cyril and Methodius" in Skopje.*