

Eva Šulić Brajčić

Eva Šulić Brajčić started her education at the Conservatory of Music and Ballet in Maribor with professor Zorica Todorović when she was only four years old. She then went on to study at the J. J. Fux Conservatory in Graz in the class of Professor Helfried Fister. From 2011 to 2015 she attended the preparatory study of violin at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Vienna with Professor Leonid Sorokow, and then enrolled in his class at the Academy of Music in Zagreb, and completed a master's degree in 2021. Eva studied art in Vienna, at the University of Music and Performing Arts in the class of prof. Anton Sorokow, and in Paris at the Schola Cantorum with prof. Violeta Smailović Huart.

As a soloist Eva has performed with many eminent orchestras such as: Zagreb Philharmonic, Croatian Radio and Television Symphony Orchestra, Varaždin Chamber Orchestra, Croatian Chamber Orchestra, Verdi Theater Chamber Orchestra (Italy), RTV Slovenia Symphony Orchestra, Maribor Festival Symphony Orchestra and many other ensembles. From September 2021, Eva became a member of the HRT Symphony Orchestra as an assistant concertmaster.

She has participated in many music competitions. She is a multiple winner of the first prizes at the Slovenian national competitions TEMSIG, in 2006 and 2009 she won the absolute first prize at the international competition Ars nova in Trieste, and in 2013 she received a gold plaque at the international competition Giuseppe Tartini in Piran. In Vienna in 2016, she won the prestigious Stefanie Hohl competition. In 2021, Eva won the first prize at the Papandopulo competition, and the award of the Croatian Society of Composers for the best performance of Boris Papandopulo's composition. She is the winner of the prestigious Stjepan Šulek Award for the best performance of a composition for violin, which was given to her by the Stjepan Šulek Fund in 2021.

In 2017, Eva began collaborating with cellist Tonka Javorović and pianist David Vuković in the Eusebius Trio, under the mentorship of prof. Pavle Zajcev. Trio Eusebius is the winner of several important Croatian competitions: at the International Competition of Young Music

Artists Ferdo Livadić in 2019 they won the main prize of the competition for the best artistic personality; at the Croatian Competition of Young Music Artists Papandopulo 2019 they won the first prize and the award of the Croatian Society of Composers for the best performance of a work by a Croatian composer; at the "Darko Lukić" forum in 2021 they won the main "Darko Lukić" Award and the Croatian Music Institute Award. They are the winners of the Dean's Award for achievements in the academic year 2018/2019. Together they performed at important festivals such as: Dubrovnik Summer Festival, Osor Music Evenings, Samobor Music Autumn, Croatian Music Festival in Vienna, Evenings on Grič, Music Evenings in Sv. Donat, Korčyra Baroque Festival, Music River and others.