Information about the audition

The application form is available at www.dso.hr

A fifth year student may also apply for the audition. In case that the candidate passes the audition and has highest number of points, he/she must submit a diploma or certificate of completed education within 3 months, or he/she will not be able to sign an employment contract and the competition for that position will be repeated. In the application, the candidate must submit a copy of the transcript.

Invited candidates should come to the audition 30 minutes before the audition schedule.

Dubrovnik Symphony Orchestra will assure an accompanist (piano) for the auditions. Candidates can have a rehearsal with the accompanist one day before the audition, following the additional schedule.

The Dubrovnik Symphony Orchestra does not provide accommodation and food for the candidates.

The candidates who pass the audition must deliver the required original (or verified) documents within 30 days. A six-month trial period will be arranged with the musician who passes the audition.

Please attach a complete CV, giving details of musical education and professional experience (completed studies, awards, and master classes).

Candidates who send only a 'Bachelor' diploma will not be invited to the audition.

Any additional information about the audition is available at pravo@dso.hr.

The candidates who do not show at the audition will be considered that they have given up on the application.

Given bowings and fingerings are not obligatory. Candidates may play from parts.

Candidates who pass the audition will be interviewed by the chief conductor, director, or audition committee members.
